

CDLC Presents an Emerging Technologies Program
Sponsored by RAAC - the Regional Automation
Advisory Committee and Union College

Emerging Technologies and Digital Cultures and Emerging Technologies and Academic Cultures

Presented by

Bryan Alexander PhD, Director of Research, NITLE

(NITLE is a community-based, non-profit initiative dedicated to helping organizations use technology effectively)

December 3, 2008 * 115 F.W. Olin Center, Union College Schenectady, NY

General Session: 9:00 am – Noon * Academic Session: 1:30 pm – 4:40 pm

Cyberculture is advancing rapidly, with teaching and research constantly taking advantage of emerging technologies. Bryan will explore Web 2.0, gaming, and mobile computing in libraries and education. The morning program will conclude with a glimpse at emergent syntheses, such as Web 3.0, augmented reality, and new forms of storytelling.

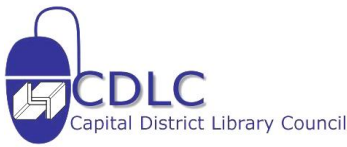

The afternoon session will focus on emerging technologies in academia, including social networking & collaboration tools, video (vodcasting/podcasting; "Ted" talks; YouTube; grassroots video); mash-ups; mobile and wireless; and gaming.

Note: 115 Olin Center has wireless available. You are invited to bring your laptop for interactive use during the presentation.

Please use the attached Registration Form. Send the Form with your check made out to CDLC to: CDLC, 28 Essex Street, Albany, NY 12206. Registration deadline is November 25, 2008.
